Twelve days of Christmas just for you—but wait—I have it wrong—
That's something misals, lassie dear, from this cheery song.
I love you not for just twelve days, for how could I survive?
Twelve days of Christmas? Arrgh-hem-hug! Three hundred sixty-five!
Love, P.Y.

To Judy Sue, April, Talia, and Mike of Studio Gaudin Stargers—thank you for sailing with me on the seas of literature, and providing such high spirits and good company along the way.

TWAS ON THE EVE OF CHRISTMASTIDE our ship sailed in the night across the dark and briny deep beneath the stars so bright.

"Ahoy, me mates!" the Cap'n roared. "'Tis time to plunder wrecks—except fer you, me cabin boy—ye'll stay an' swab the decks!"

I told him it was Christmastide. "Arrrgh-humbug!" Cap'n barked.
"That holiday's fer landlubbers! Ye'll stay put on the Sark!"

That night I dreamed of Christmas trees a-sparklin' 'neath the moon an' jolly ol' Sir Peggedy with sacks full of doubloons.

But when I woke I saw a sight: "What's this upon our ship!"
"AVAST!" I cried, an' danced a jig. A song burst from me lips:

On the first day of Christmas,
a gift was sent to me:

a parrot in a palm tree!

On the second day of Christmas,
a gift was sent to me:

2 cutlasses

an' a parrot in a palm tree.

On the third day of Christmas,
a gift was sent to me:

3 black cats

2 cutlasses, an' a parrot in a palm tree.

On the fourth day of Christmas, a gift was sent to me

4 cacklin' hens

3 black cats, 2 cutlasses, an' a parrot in a palm tree.

On the fifth day of Christmas, a gift was sent to me

5 chests of gold!

4 cacklin' hens, 3 black cats, 2 catlasses,
an' a parrot in a palm tree.

On the sixth day of Christmas
a gift was sent to me:

6 Jolly Rogers

5 chests of gold, 4 cackl n' hens,
3 black cats, 2 cutlasses,
an' a parrot in a palm tree

On the seventh day of Christmas,
a gift was sent to me:

7 monkeys swingin'

6 jolly Rogers, 5 chests o' gold,
4 cackl'n' hens,
3 black cats, 2 cutlasses an' a parrot in a palm tree

On the ninth day of Christmas, a gift was sent to me:

9 mermaids singin'

8 dolphins swimmin', 7 monkeys swingin',
6 Jolly Rogers, 5 chests of gold, 4 cacklin' hens,
3 black cats, 2 cutlasses,
an' a parrot in a palm tree.

On the tenth day of Christmas, a gift was sent to me

7 monkeys swing n', 6 jolly Rogers, 5 chests of gold,

4 cacklin' hens, 3 black cats, 2 cutlasses, an' a parrot in a palm tree

On the twelfth day of Christmas,
a gift was sent to me

12 pirates cheerin'

Send greetings

11 swallows swoopin', 11 loops a swingin'
9 mermaids singin'
8 dolphins swimmin', 7 monkeys swingin',
6 Jolly Rogers,
5 chests of gold, 4 cacklin' hens,
3 black cats, 2 cutlasses,
an' a parrot in a palm tree.

SURPRISE!" me Luckos shouted. The Cap'n winked at me.
"Merry Christmas, laddie boy, we sent those gifts to ye."

HOORAY!"

The Cap'n cried, "'Tis time fer bed. Avast' Anchors aweigh!
Per jolly ol' S'r Peggedy will soon be on his sleigh!"
I thanked me hearties, one an' all, for every gift they'd sent,
then sang a little sleepy song, an' this is how it went:

an' a parrot a snooze n' with me

Pirate Glossary

"Avast!" ~ a pirate's way of saying "Stop!" or "Who goes there?"

Black Cat ~ cats are considered very good luck on board a pirate ship

Bucco ~ what a pirate calls his or her best friend (short for "buccaneer")

Christmas tide ~ another name for the Christmas season

Dolphin ~ dolphins swimming alongside ships are thought to bring good luck

Doubleloon ~ a Spanish gold coin pirates love to steal

Jolly Roger ~ the pirate's skull n' crossbones flag. When raised it is a signal meant to strike fear into the hearts of the pirate's victims.

Landlubber ~ "land lover," someone who prefers to stay on land

Mateys and Hearties ~ a pirate's shipmates

Plunder ~ what a pirate does when robbing loot from other ships

Sark ~ short for the Black Sark, the name of the ship in this book. One of the most famous pirate ships in history was called the Cutty Sark, which was a sailing ship with three masts.

Sloop ~ a small sailboat with a single mast, similar to a dinghy

Swallow ~ spotting a swallow means that land is near and smooth sailing is ahead

Thar ~ sometimes used for "there" and sometimes for "their"

Merry Christmas, me buckey!
